Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT
(SHRI SUDARSHAN BHAGAT)

(a): Ministry of Rural Development is implementing through State Governments/UT Administrations major rural development programmes like Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (MGNREGA), National Rural Livelihood Mission (NRLM), Indira AwaasYojana (IAY) and PradhanMantri Gram SadakYojana (PMGSY). The National Social Assistance Programme (NSAP) is also being implemented for providing social security. While the MGNREGA is a demand driven programme, the other programmes like IAY, NRLM and PMGSY are allocation based programmes. Under the sub components of NRLM such as Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Grameen Kaushalya Yojana (DDU-GKY), Mahila Kisan Sashaktikaran Pariyojana (MKSP), Startup Village Entrepreneurship Programme (SVEP) the proposals are received from the States and approved by the Empowered Committee which is a continuous process.

(b): There is no proposal to convene the State level meeting of District Magistrates and others.The State Governments ensure the implementation of rural development programmes through the administrative arrangement as prescribed in the programme specific guidelines.

(c): All the major rural development programmes mentioned above are implemented in all the States including Madhya Pradesh to improve the living conditions of the rural poor including landless farmers and labourers directly or indirectly.

(d) and (e): The Ministry regularly convenes Performance Review Committee meeting with State Governments. The implementation of rural development programmesis monitored through a comprehensive and multi- tool monitoring mechanism. Appropriate objectively verifiable performance indicators for outcomes have been developed for each of the rural development programmes.
